Dear Lyndal,

With reference to Mr Dale Kam, a Worksite Telehealth was conducted yesterday with Dale, Tony and David present at the workplace and myself via teleconference to discuss the certificate of capacity received by Mr Kam on Monday.

The following was discussed:

- Beneco outlined the details specified on each certified being that the NTS had specified PID capacity from 03 August 2020 and the NTD had specified PID capacity from the same date as well as capacity for some type of employment for this week; beneco highlighted that there was no restriction indicating Mr Kam was required to work from home
- Mr Kam confirmed he was able to drive and that he drove himself to the meeting today
- David advised that Mr Kam had been working from home for the past two weeks performing administrative tasks including paperwork and phone calls; David apologised for this not being fed back to Beneco
- It was confirmed that suitable duties were still available and that the preference would be for Mr Kam to work on site rather than home as there more tasks available on site
- Mr Kam acknowledged this and was agreeable to working on site as this would provide a graded return to PID capacity
- It was confirmed Mr Kam would resume work from home duties for Tuesday (yesterday) and return on site from Wednesday for suitable duties including administrative / computer / phone based work; as of 03 August 2020, Mr Kam will be performing PID's

Action plan:

- Beneco to devise the Recovery At Work Plan as well as Pre-Injury Duties plan and distribute.
- Mr Kam to continue suitable duties and advise if he develops any issues with these.
- From 03 August 2020, Mr Kam to commence pre-injury duties and advise all parties if any issues arise.
- Beneco to monitor Mr Kam in the performance of work duties and then close with the usual 13 week monitoring period.
