

INJURY REPORT

Australian Automotive Group Pty Ltd

840088817912

Employee Name: John O'Donoghue	Total Time Lost: 24 hours
Date and Time of Injury: 2019-02-28 11:45	Was Insurer notified? No
Site location: AAG RYDE	Was Safe Work notified? No
Location of Incident: Workshop - Mechanical	Investigated By: Sam Sultana
Injured Body Part: Lower Leg	Likelihood: +Likely Could happen any time
Nature of Injury: Contusion and crushing injuries	Severity: !First aid needed
Mechanism of Injury: Hit by falling objects	Is this closed? Yes (2019-03-03)
Eyewitnesses: Jye Cabrera - 98072933

Risk Identification:

John was moving an oil drum on the a trolley, the oil drum was not secured on the trolley correctly and slipped off the base. The drum then pushed onto John and wedging his shin between the drum and another drum. He was taken to hospital for assessment.

Risk Assessment:

Drum not being secured onto the trolley as required. Insufficient training, development and supervision.

Risk Controls:

Tool box talks about the necessity to secure loads on trolley's before undertaking the tasks. Will organise a new safe work procedure be drafted for this.

Employees File Notes: