Dear Qasm

RE: Request to attend disciplinary meeting

The purpose of this letter is to formally advise you that allegations of poor workplace attitude, performance and misconduct have recently been brought to our attention.

It is alleged that on or around 28 May 2019, you were engaged in a physical / verbal altercation with another work colleague. This occurred within the pre-delivery area at Smithfield and was witnessed by Shane Allsopp and Rajesh Khanna.

If proven, this misconduct may result in a written warning, a final written warning or the termination of your employment.

Prior to any decision being made, and to enable a full and detailed investigation of this matter, we request your attendance at a disciplinary meeting which has been specifically convened to provide a suitable opportunity for you to respond to these allegations.

This disciplinary meeting is to be conducted at 9.00 am on Tuesday 11 June at a location to be announced at AAG's Smithfield location.

You are expected to make every effort to attend this meeting and are placed on notice that the Company reserves the right to make a determination in your absence if you fail to attend this meeting for whatever reason.

I will have sole responsibility for the conduct of this meeting, together with any resulting decision which is to be made.

You are of course welcome to bring a support person to this meeting should you choose.

All matters and information relating to this allegation are confidential and you are directed not to discuss them with any other person without my express prior consent. Any failure by you to maintain confidentiality may lead to disciplinary action.
